

ICC Webinar

The UN Tax Framework Convention: what lies ahead?

14:00-15:30 CET | 7 March 2025

Join this joint webinar organized by ICC Belgium, Germany, France and the Netherlands to gain insights into the ongoing negotiations for a UN Tax Framework Convention. The webinar will start with a presentation covering the background, key developments, and next steps in the negotiation process, including opportunities for business engagement. Following the presentation, a panel discussion with tax leaders and government representatives will explore the challenges and opportunities presented by this evolving global tax landscape.

Join us to:

- Deepen your understanding of the UN Tax Framework Convention Negotiation Process
- Gain valuable perspectives on how the business sector can positively engage
- Exchange views on these developments with business leaders and government

Register here to receive the link to join.

(The link will be shared closely to the date of the webinar)

Participation is open and welcome also from prospective ICC members.

Chatham House Rule will apply.

For more information: jessica.reed@iccwbo.org

14:00 – 14:15 Welcoming Remarks

14:15 – 14:40 Introductory presentation on the UN Tax Framework & upcoming negotiations

Luisa Scarcella

(ICC Global Policy Lead Taxation & Trade)

14:40 – 15:10 Panel Discussion

Thomas Quatrevalet

(Group Tax Director Air Liquide; Vice-Chair ICC Global Tax Commission; ICC France)

Christian Kaeser

(Global Head of Tax Siemens; Previous Chair ICC Global Tax Commission; ICC Germany)

Angie Clocheret

(Advisor, Belgian Ministry of Finance)

16:20 – 16:30 Concluding Remarks